

Investing in our students and schools

Our schools embody more than books and learning.

They are both the source and repository of our community pride and history.

NEW/ENHANCED INVESTMENTS

Stratford School

$4.1M for a new total of $42.1M

Additional funds have been included within the budget to continue the development of new school within Stratford, as a net-zero ready facility.

Sherwood School

$2.8M for a new total of $25.2M

Continue with our commitment to building a new elementary school for the residents of Sherwood, and to ensure that it is a net-zero ready facility.

School Construction and Renovations

$16.5M for a total of $46.0M

Significant upgrades and enhancements to West Royalty Elementary, Montague Consolidated, École-sur-Mer, Eliot River, and Evangeline Schools.

Children and youth are extremely important to the future of Prince Edward Island.

Continuing Investments

Classroom Technology

$8.4M

Funds for technology in our classrooms including desktops, laptops, and Chromebooks used by teachers and students to facilitate online learning.

School Capital Repairs

$12.0M

To provide funding for the capital repair needs for the 62 schools across the Province.
