OBLIGATION TO INSURE

Insurance coverage	6. (1) The insured shall offer for insurance all livestock and livestock products identified under an insurance plan which are produced by the insured in the province, and the policy shall apply to all livestock and livestock products produced in facilities owned or leased by the insured.
Criteria	(2) The criteria for financial independence, as outlined in clause 1(n), and operational independence, as outlined in section 3, shall define a single insured and subsection 6(1) shall apply to each insured as a single insured.

PERILS COVERED

Perils	7. (1) Subject to the terms and conditions thereof, a livestock insurance agreement covers a production loss of livestock or livestock products during the crop year caused by one or more of the following designated perils which pertain to the insurable livestock, livestock products or insurance plan: (a) reportable diseases that are designated pursuant to the Health of Animals Act (Canada), except bovine spongiform encephalopathy ("BSE") and foot and mouth disease ("FMD"); (b) pasteurella pneumonia (shipping fever); (c) infectious bovine rhinotracheitis (respiratory form).
Exclusions, control programs	(2) Notwithstanding clause 1(a), a livestock insurance agreement does not insure against a loss resulting from

- (a) disease or death losses unless the insured establishes that the insured followed a control program acceptable to the Department and the Corporation; or
- (b) disease or death losses where compensation is provided from another source, as outlined in section 27.

EXTENT OF COVERAGE

8. (1) Subject to the Act and these regulations, a livestock insurance agreement is valid from the date those conditions outlined in clause 1(aa) are met until the date identified in the Schedules for submitting a Proof of Loss, unless an additional period of coverage is approved, in writing, by the Corporation.

Contract period

(2) All livestock or livestock products will be insured for losses from those designated perils listed in subsection 7(1) and in the Schedules, up to and including the final date as listed in subsection (1).

Coverage

(3) Those livestock or livestock products for which extended coverage is prescribed and permitted will be insured for losses from a designated peril from the prescribed final date for coverage to the final date for filing a Proof of Loss, or as otherwise stated in the Schedules.

Extended coverage

(4) The insured shall declare all losses of livestock or livestock products by the final date for filing a Proof of Loss.

Obligation to declare losses

EXCLUDED COVERAGE

9. (1) An Agreement does not insure against, and no indemnity shall be paid, in respect of a loss resulting from

Exclusions

- (a) the negligence, misconduct, or poor farming practices of the insured or of agents or employees of the insured;
- (b) a peril other than the designated perils listed in subsection 7(1) or in the Schedules;
- (c) livestock or livestock products contaminated with diseases or conditions considered unacceptable by the insurer that existed prior to the date of application for insurance coverage; or
- (d) a shortage of labour or machinery.

(2) Subject to section 17, the insured must notify the Corporation of any problems with an insured crop by completing a Notice of Loss.

Notice of Loss

(3) Failure by an insured to notify the Corporation of any problems with an insured crop shall eliminate all insurance coverage on that crop.

Elimination of coverage

INSURABLE INTEREST AND ASSIGNMENT

10. Notwithstanding that a person other than the insured holds an interest of any kind in an insurable crop,

Insurable interest

- (a) the interest of the insured is deemed to be the insured value of the livestock or livestock products which are covered by the contract of insurance; and
- (b) subject to section 11, no indemnity shall be paid to any person other than the insured.

Assignment

11. The insured may assign all or part of the insured's right to an indemnity under a livestock insurance agreement in respect of the livestock or livestock products, but an assignment is not binding on the Corporation and no payment of an indemnity shall be made to an assignee, unless

- (a) the assignment is made on a form acceptable to the Corporation; and
- (b) the Corporation gives its consent to the assignment in writing.

APPLICATION AND PREMIUMS FOR LIVESTOCK INSURANCE

Application for insurance

12. (1) An application for livestock insurance or livestock products insurance shall be accepted, and a livestock insurance agreement shall be entered into and signed by the Corporation and the insured, if:

- (a) the Corporation receives a signed application before the application deadline for each program;
- (b) the required deposit accompanies the application;
- (c) the Corporation receives a copy of the signed agreement;
- (d) after the initial review, the application appears to meet all the regulations stated in the Agreement.

Application documents

(2) An Inventory and Production Report shall form part of the application for livestock insurance or livestock products insurance.

Idem

(3) A signed copy of the Agreement must be received by the Corporation no later than the deadline, as stated in the Schedules, in order for a valid contract of insurance to exist.

Deposit

(4) An application for livestock insurance or livestock products insurance shall not be accepted unless the application is accompanied by a deposit of 15% to 50% of the estimated premium, based on the following criteria:

- (a) 15% if full premium and interest for the preceding crop year was paid by December 31 of that year;
- (b) 25% if full premium and interest for the preceding crop year was paid during the subsequent month of January;
- (c) 30% if full premium and interest for the preceding crop year was paid during the subsequent month of February;
- (d) 35% if full premium and interest for the preceding crop year was paid during the subsequent month of March;
- (e) 50% if full premium and interest for the preceding crop year was paid after the subsequent month of March;

(f) all premium and interest owing on insured crops from any previous year must be paid in full and a 50% deposit will be required before an application will be accepted for the new crop year.

(5) The total premium shall be calculated by applying Board approved premium rates to the insured value of each insurable crop, subject to adjustments, pursuant to sections 12, 13, 14 and 15 of these regulations. Total premium

(6) The insured's premium cost is calculated by applying the insured's share of total premiums to the total premium costs. Insured's premium

(7) The insured's share of premiums may be adjusted by Provincial Government incentives, subject to the insured's eligibility, as established by the Corporation. Idem

(8) The deposit, required with the application for livestock insurance or livestock products insurance, is calculated by applying the deposit requirement, as outlined in subsection (4), to the insured's share of total premiums, calculated at the time the application is prepared. Deposit

(9) Failure to provide the required deposit by the application deadline shall result in cancellation of the Agreement. Idem

(10) NSF (Non Sufficient Funds) bank charges of $40 shall be charged to the insured when NSF cheques are submitted as payment of the required deposit or premiums. NSF

(11) The remainder of the premium owing, after the deposit has been paid, is due and payable by the date stated in the Schedules for each insurable crop or insurance plan to which the Agreement applies. Date premium balance due

(12) Interest, at a rate determined by the Board, shall be calculated and applied to the premium balance at the end of the month following the premium payment due date as stated in the Schedules, and interest charges shall be applied on the outstanding balance at the end of any subsequent month, until the premium balance and interest charges have been paid by the insured. Interest on premium balance outstanding

(13) The Corporation shall provide discounts for the early payment of premiums above the required deposit, and these discounts shall be applied as follows: Early payment discount

- (a) only the insured's share of premiums identified on the application form shall be eligible for the early payment discount;
- (b) a discount rate shall be set by the Board for premium payments received before June 1st of the crop year and a separate discount rate shall be set by the Board for premium payments received within 30 days of June 1st of the crop year.

(14) The discount shall only apply to that portion of the outstanding premiums, above the required deposit, that are received by the deadlines identified in subsection (13). Idem

Termination	(15) The insured has 30 days after the application deadline to reconsider the policy and if an insured chooses to terminate the policy, a written request must be received by the Corporation prior to the expiry of the 30-day period, and on receipt of the written request, the Agreement will be cancelled and any deposit paid by the insured shall be forfeited to the Corporation.
Premiums	(16) Premiums or any other moneys due to the Corporation shall be deducted from any indemnity payment made after the due date for payment of the premiums.
Premium discount or surcharge	13. (1) The Corporation may apply a premium discount or a premium surcharge to an insured's total premium costs based on the insured's relative loss ratio (RLR) for insurable livestock or insurable livestock products.
Relative loss ratio	(2) The relative loss ratio (RLR) used to establish the discount or surcharge is the ratio between an insured's loss ratio for livestock or livestock products and the loss ratio for the province as a whole for the same livestock or livestock products over the same period of time.
Calculation	(3) The loss ratio discount or surcharge will be calculated as follows: (a) for insureds with a loss ratio based on fewer than five years of insurance history, the discount or surcharge percentage will be equal to $(RLR - 1) \times N \times .1$ (where N = number of years insured); Discount and surcharges shall be capped at 10% per year, for the first five years; (b) for insureds with a loss ratio based on five or more years of insurance history, the discount or surcharge percentage will be equal to $(RLR - 1) \times 5 \times .1.$
Idem	(4) In the calculations described in subsection (3), a result less than zero represents a discount from the base premium rate, and a result greater than zero represents a surcharge on the base premium rate.
Maximum discounts or surcharge	(5) In no case may the discount or surcharge calculated under subsection (3) exceed (a) 10% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on one year of insurance history; (b) 20% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on two years of insurance history; (c) 30% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on three years of insurance history; (d) 40% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on four years of insurance history; or (e) 50% of the base premium amount, in the case of an insured with a loss ratio based on five or more years of insurance history.

PRODUCTION REPORTING

14. (1) The insured shall complete and file with the Corporation an Inventory and Production Summary Production summary

- (a) by the application deadline;
- (b) at any other time as stated in the Schedules;
- (c) at any time required by the Corporation; and
- (d) that states the total inventory and production of livestock or livestock products.

(2) The Corporation has the right to check and verify inventory and production information submitted by the insured. Idem

(3) The Corporation or an agent of the Corporation shall provide to the insured and Corporation an Inventory and Production Summary by the final date for filing a Proof of Loss, as stated in the Schedules for each insurable crop or insurance plan. Idem

(4) The insured may meet the obligations of clause (1)(a) by signing the Inventory and Production Report prepared by the Corporation or an agent of the Corporation. Idem

(5) The insured's signature on the Inventory and Production Report prepared by the Corporation or an agent of the Corporation shall indicate acceptance Idem

- (a) of the inventory and production for each insurable crop, as stated therein; and
- (b) of the inventory and production to be used by the Corporation to determine indemnity payments.

(6) The Corporation reserves the right to adjust the inventory and production declared by the insured or an agent of the Corporation for insurable and non-insurable perils. Idem

15. (1) An insured value shall be calculated annually for each livestock or livestock product described in the Schedules and for which a separate contract of insurance is offered. Insured value

(2) Deductibles selected by the insured shall be applied to the insured value for each insurable group of livestock or livestock products to determine the insured value for each insurable unit. Idem

(3) Coverage levels greater than 70% may only be offered for new insurable livestock, livestock products or insurance plans if they receive approval from Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada and the Board prior to being offered. Coverage levels

(4) Coverage levels up to 80% may be offered to those established insurable livestock, livestock products or insurance plans with fully loaded premium rates which are calculated to be greater than 9%. Idem

Idem	(5) Coverage levels up to 90% may be offered to those established insurable livestock, livestock products or insurance plans with fully loaded premium rates which are calculated to be less than 9%.
Total Insured Value	(6) Insured value for livestock, livestock products or insurance plans shall be the product of the insured's inventory or production history, the coverage level selected by the insured, expressed as a percentage, and the unit price established for livestock, livestock products or insurance plans.

INVENTORY AND PRODUCTION REPORT

Inventory and Production Report	16. (1) The insured shall complete and file with the Corporation an Inventory and Production Report and this report shall state the insured's declaration of inventory and livestock and any other information that the Corporation may require.
Idem	(2) The Inventory and Production Report shall be submitted at the time the insured applies for insurance coverage and this report shall form part of the application for insurance.
Idem	(3) An application for insurance shall not be accepted by the Corporation unless an Inventory and Production Report accompanies the application.
Adjustments	(4) Where, after audits carried out by the Corporation or an agent of the Corporation, the livestock or livestock products listed on the Inventory and Production Report are less than or greater than those declared on the report, the Corporation shall adjust the insured value to reflect the verified inventory and production and a new statement of account will be issued to reflect the changes in insured value and premium charges.
Verification	(5) The Corporation reserves the right to check or measure, by any means acceptable to the Corporation, any livestock inventory or livestock products which have been offered for insurance.
Adjustment	(6) The Corporation reserves the right to adjust the final insured inventory or livestock products pursuant to subsection (5), and to adjust the insured value and premiums for this insurance coverage.

NOTICE OF LOSS

Notice of Loss	17. (1) Where any loss or damage to an insurable crop results from one or more of the perils insured against and the damage was occasioned at a readily ascertainable time, the insured shall notify the Corporation, in writing, within five days of such time.
Idem	(2) The notification referred to in subsection (1), may be filed with the Corporation on a Notice of Loss form provided by the Corporation or by any other means considered acceptable to the Corporation.

(3) Upon receipt of such Notice of Loss form, the Corporation shall respond to the insured with an inspection of the loss in order to verify the extent of the losses or damage and to evaluate the losses with respect to all insurable and non-insurable perils. Inspection

(4) Payment of an indemnity for individual losses shall not be made until a Proof of Loss has been filed for all insurable crops and all offsetting adjustments have been applied. Offsetting

(5) Where loss or damage to an insurable crop results from one or more of the perils insured against and it appears to the insured that losses could trigger an indemnity payment, the insured shall notify the Corporation, to enable the Corporation to inspect the losses. Inspection after notice

(6) Where the insured has failed to notify the Corporation of any loss by the date for filing a Proof of Loss, whether the failure to notify is to the prejudice of the Corporation and whether the loss is apparent by that date, no indemnity shall be payable and no premium shall be refunded. No indemnity for loss after the deadline

PROOF OF LOSS

18. (1) A claim for an indemnity in respect of an insurable crop shall be made by an insured on a Proof of Loss form provided by the Corporation or by any other means considered acceptable to the Corporation, and, unless the Corporation gives written permission to delay filing, a Proof of Loss shall be filed with the Corporation by the final date for filing a Proof of Loss. Proof of Loss

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a claim for indemnity shall be made by the insured. Claim for indemnity

(3) A claim for indemnity may be made Idem

- (a) in the case of the absence or inability of the insured, by the agent of the insured; or
- (b) in the case of the absence or inability of the insured or the failure or refusal of the insured to do so, by an assignee under an assignment made in accordance with section 11.

INDEMNITY

19. (1) The indemnity payable for loss or damage to livestock or livestock products shall be determined in the manner prescribed in these regulations or in the Schedules. Indemnity

(2) The Corporation may cause the production of livestock or livestock products to be appraised according to guidelines outlined in the Schedules or by any method that the Corporation considers proper. Appraisal

(3) The loss with respect to insured livestock or livestock products and the amount of indemnity payable shall be determined separately for each contract of insurance. Each contract determined separately

Conditions	(4) No indemnity shall be paid for a loss in respect of livestock or livestock products unless the insured establishes to the satisfaction of the Corporation that (a) the losses occurred and were reported to the Corporation as outlined in sections 17 and 18; (b) the loss resulted directly from one or more of the perils set out in subsection 7(1) or in the Schedules; and (c) the insured discovered and reported the loss, as required under section 17.
Evaluation of loss	20. (1) For the purposes of determining losses during a crop year and the indemnity payable, the insured value of the livestock or livestock products shall progress through the steps described in sections 19, 20 and 21.
Mitigation	(2) The insured shall use all reasonable procedures available to the insured in order to mitigate losses in all stages of production and marketing.
Limitation of liability	(3) The Corporation may limit its liability, at any stage of production, if it determines that the loss has been established and that extending the management of the insured crop will only increase the losses.
Maximum liability	(4) An Inventory and Production Report submitted by the insured to apply for insurance coverage and a Proof of Loss filed by the insured shall be used by the Corporation to establish the maximum liability and the indemnity payment.
Final indemnity	(5) For all livestock insurance plans, a final indemnity occurs where the losses exceed the deductible portion of the insurance coverage and indemnity payments shall be calculated by multiplying the excess losses by the unit price.
Indemnity	(6) No indemnity shall be payable for losses which do not exceed the deductible portion of the insurance contract or where the insured has not met the requirements for filing a Proof of Loss.

PAYMENT OF INDEMNITY

Time for payment	21. (1) Except as otherwise provided in the endorsement for an insurable crop, an offer of indemnity under an Agreement shall be made by the end of the crop year in which the loss or damage was sustained.
Idem	(2) The Corporation may pay, in part or in full, an indemnity under an Agreement before the date on which it is due.
Monies owed	(3) The Corporation reserves the right to deduct all monies owed to the Corporation from an indemnity payment before it is issued to the insured.
Total payments	(4) Total indemnity payments shall never exceed 100% of the insured value.

MISREPRESENTATION

- 22. (1) Where, in respect of livestock or livestock products, the insured Misrepresentation
- (a) wilfully makes a false statement or provides documents that wrongfully state the financial or operational independence of the insured;
 - (b) in the application for insurance or in other documentation provided to the Corporation, gives false particulars on the livestock or livestock products to be insured, to the prejudice of the Corporation or knowingly misrepresents or fails to disclose any fact required to be stated therein;
 - (c) contravenes a term or condition of the Agreement;
 - (d) commits a fraud; or
 - (e) wilfully makes a false statement in respect of a claim under the Agreement, the policy shall be deemed to be terminated, all premiums shall be deemed to have been earned by the Corporation, any claim for indemnity by the insured shall be invalid, and the right to recover thereunder shall be forfeited.

- (2) Where the Corporation finds, at a later date, that an insured falsely stated or misrepresented the insured's position with respect to a contract of insurance or an indemnity payment, the Corporation shall file a claim for repayment of all indemnities deemed to be unearned. Claim for repayment

WAIVER OR ALTERATION

- 23. (1) No term or condition of the Agreement or a rider shall be waived or altered in whole or in part by the Corporation, unless the waiver or alteration is clearly expressed in writing and signed by the Board or a representative authorized for that purpose by the Corporation. Alterations

- (2) The Corporation reserves the right to change the terms and conditions of the Agreement from year to year without obtaining the consent of the insured. Idem

- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the insured will be notified of any changes to the Agreement before the enrolment deadline for the crop year in which the changes are to be in effect, and those changes are deemed to be part of the policy for that crop year. Notice

- (4) The Corporation reserves the right to make adjustments for insured and non-insured perils. Adjustments

APPEAL OF A DECISION

(10) The Appeal Board shall, within 10 days after the hearing is completed, serve notice of its decision and provide its decision to all parties involved in the appeal. Notice of decision

SUBROGATION

27. (1) Where the Corporation has paid a claim under the Agreement, the Corporation is subrogated to the extent thereof of all rights of recovery of the insured against any person, and may bring an action in the name of the insured for the full amount of the claim to enforce those rights. Subrogation

(2) Where the Corporation is liable to pay a claim under the Agreement but the insured has been compensated for the loss by another party, the Corporation, being subrogated to the rights of the insured, may take such third party compensation into account when determining the Corporation's liability for compensation to the insured. Third party payments

RECORDS AND ACCESS

28. (1) The insured agrees that the Corporation has a right of entry to the premises of the insured, which right may be exercised by the Corporation or its agents at any reasonable time, and on reasonable grounds, to inspect or monitor livestock or livestock products or for any purpose related to the policy. Right of entry

(2) No person shall obstruct, hinder or knowingly make any false or misleading statements either orally or in writing to an officer or agent of Offence
