Application by non-resident shareholder of a corporation	(5) Where an application is made by a corporation pursuant to section 5 or subsection 5.3(1)(b) of the Act and the corporation is required to pay a fee under subsection 1.(2), and the effect of granting a permit to that corporation, under the attribution rules set out in the Act, would be to increase the aggregate land holding of a person who is not a resident person beyond the limit set out in section 4 of the Act, there shall be no fee for any consequential application by that person under section 4 of the Act.
Refund	(6) Where an application made pursuant to section 4 or 5 or subsection 5.3(1)(b) of the Act is denied, or is approved but no part of the acquisition for which approval has been received has been or will be completed, the Commission may refund up to 50% of the application fee upon application to the Commission filed within six months of the date that Executive Council rendered its decision.
