Notice

ALLOWABLE PERCENTAGE RESIDENTIAL RENT INCREASE FOR 2010

In accordance with the Rental of Residential Property Act, the Island Regulatory and Appeals Commission has determined that the allowable percentage increase for residential rent during 2010 shall be as follows:

- 2.00 percent for heated residential premises;
- 2.00 percent for unheated residential premises; and
- 2.00 percent for a mobile home site only in a mobile home park.

Lessors who believe their special circumstances justify a rent increase above the allowable percentage may apply to the Director of Residential Rental Property pursuant to Section 23 of the Act.

Forms related to rent increases within or above the allowable percentage and general information regarding the Act are available from the Office of the Director of Residential Rental Property, Fifth Floor, National Bank Tower, 134 Kent Street, P. (ii) has not given prescriptions for a therapeutic drug as part of his or her authorized practice of optometry in Canada or the United States within the three years preceding the application for a written confirmation, the licensed optometrist has completed an accredited refresher course in the administration and prescription of therapeutic drugs consisting of a minimum of 20 credit hours, and has passed the course examination.

10. The regulations are amended

(a) by the revocation of the heading entitled "FEES" immediately before section 22; and

(b) by the revocation of section 22.

11. These regulations are deemed to have come into force on September 1, 2009.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds a definition for "Canadian Standard Assessment in Optometry" to the definition section of the regulations.

SECTION 2 adds two application requirements to existing requirements outlined in section 2 of the regulations.

SECTION 3 changes the reference in the section from the standard examination of the Maritime Provinces Board of Examiners to the Canadian Standard Assessment in Optometry, which is administered by the Canadian Examiners in Optometry. Due to this amendment, a subsection is revoked that is no longer needed.

SECTIONS 4 and 6 correct references to the standard examination of the Maritime Provinces Board of Examiners to reflect that the standard examination has been replaced by the Canadian Standard Assessment in Optometry and that more than one type of examination can satisfy the professional competency requirement.

SECTION 5 revokes a provision that is redundant.

SECTION 7 corrects the reference in the section to the standard examination of the Maritime Provinces Board of Examiners to reflect that the standard examination has been replaced by the Canadian Standard Assessment in Optometry and that more than one type of examination can satisfy the professional competency requirement. It also revokes and replaces the provision dealing with the requirements for the renewal of a license by a licensed optometrist.

SECTION 8 requires the College to appoint an Examination Committee to set, administer and evaluate several types of examinations the College may be responsible for under the regulations.

SECTION 9 adds a new section to the regulations outlining the prescribed training and education requirements of a licensed optometrist who wishes to give a prescription for a therapeutic drug or class of therapeutic drugs.

SECTION 10 revokes the provision dealing with fees.

SECTION 11 provides for the commencement of these regulations.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 revokes unneeded definitions for “make-up air”, “patio”, “independent ventilation system” and “negative air pressure” and adds back in a definition for “door”, and revises existing definitions for “elementary, intermediate or secondary school” and “hospital”. The section also amends references to the type of ventilation system required for a designated smoking room.

SECTION 2 makes amendments respecting the designation of designated smoking areas in public places and workplaces to recognize that recent amendments to the Act restrict the designation of designated smoking areas to outdoor areas in public places and workplaces and to rooms in long-term care facilities. This section also restricts the hours during which a patio may be designated as a designated smoking area and requires that the hours of designation be included on signage.

SECTION 3 revokes a provision of the regulations respecting the designation of a room as a designated smoking area in a public place or workplace.

SECTION 4 revokes and amends provisions of the regulations respecting the ventilation and structural requirements for a room in a public place or workplace to be designated as a designated smoking area to instead refer to a room in a long-term care facility.

SECTION 5 revokes a section respecting the ventilation system requirements for a designated smoking room in a long-term care facility.

SECTION 6 revokes provisions of the regulations respecting an employee working in a designated smoking room in a public place or workplace and replaces those provisions with a provision respecting an employee working in a designated smoking room in a long-term care facility.

SECTION 7 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
