- (1) minimum contract prices for Processing Potatoes or for any variety, grade or size of Processing Potatoes;
  - (2) bonuses and penalties applicable to Processing Potatoes;

- (2) Each Negotiating Committee shall consist of a maximum of six representatives of the Board and a maximum of six representatives of a Processor.

- (c) Notwithstanding clauses (3)(a) and (3)(b), a Negotiating Committee shall not be appointed with respect to any Processor in respect of which a contract governing the purchase and sale of Processing Potatoes already exists for Potatoes grown in that calendar year.
- (4) Failure by either of the Board or the Processor to name any representatives to a Negotiating Committee by the required date of any year shall entitle the party who has appointed representatives to the Negotiating Committee to immediately invoke mediation in accordance with section 7 below.
- Timelines 6. (1) Upon a Negotiating Committee being established, it shall immediately commence negotiations to establish all terms and conditions respecting the form and content of a contract for use by a Processor in the purchase of Processing Potatoes for that crop year, and, if the parties so agree, for subsequent crop years.
- (2) Should a Negotiating Committee agree to do so prior to the appointment of a mediator pursuant to section 7, the terms and conditions of a contract shall be submitted to a vote of Producers who held contracts for Processing Potatoes with such Processor in the prior crop year. If the terms and conditions are approved by such vote, such terms and conditions shall be approved by the Board, and constitute the form of contract to be used by the Processor for purchasing Potatoes pursuant to section 10. If the terms and conditions are rejected by the vote of Producers, the Negotiating Committee shall continue its negotiations.
- Mediation 7. (1) A Negotiating Committee may, by a majority vote of each of the Board representatives and the Processor representatives on such Committee, request mediation of outstanding issues at any time. Upon the request for mediation being made, and the mediator selected pursuant to subsection (3) below, a mediation session shall be held for a duration at the mediator's discretion, but in any event to be no longer than five days.
- (2) If, by the last Friday in March of each year, a Negotiating Committee has not agreed upon the terms and conditions of a contract to be submitted to a vote of Producers, the outstanding issues shall be submitted to mediation, such mediation to take place within one week of the last Friday in March, for a duration at the mediator's discretion, but in any event to be no longer than three days.
- (3) The mediator shall be selected on or before March 15 of each year, and shall be selected from a list consisting of an odd number of names prepared by the Prince Edward Island Marketing Council, and, in the absence of a mutual agreement between the representatives of the Board and representatives of the Processor on the Negotiating Committee, shall be selected by each of the Board representatives and Processor representatives eliminating names from the list in alternate sequence until the name of one individual remains, which individual shall be the mediator. The order of striking names from the list shall be determined by chance.

- (4) If, as a result of the mediation, the Negotiating Committee agrees upon the terms and conditions to be submitted to a vote of Producers, such terms and conditions shall be submitted to a vote of Producers who held contracts for Processing Potatoes with such Processor in the previous crop year. If the terms and conditions are approved by the vote, the Board shall approve the form of contract, and the contract shall be the contract used by the Processor for that crop year in accordance with section 10 below. If the Producers vote to reject the terms and conditions, the outstanding issues shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with section 8 below.
- (5) A Negotiating Committee may, by a majority vote of each of the Board representatives and Processor representatives on the Committee, agree at any time to submit outstanding issues to arbitration.
- Arbitration 8. (1) If, by April 15 of each year, a Negotiating Committee has not been able to agree upon all terms and conditions respecting the contract for use by a Processor in the purchase of Processing Potatoes for that crop year, all outstanding issues shall be submitted to binding arbitration.
- (2) The arbitrator shall be selected by the Negotiating Committee from the list referred to in subsection 7(3) above. The arbitrator may be the same person who carried out mediation pursuant to section 7 above.
- (3) Within seven days of April 15, the representatives of the Board and the representatives of the Processor on the Negotiating Committee must submit to the arbitrator and to the other party a concise written statement of the unresolved matters and their respective final offers, with any supporting documentation on which they intend to rely, addressing each unresolved matter. Neither the representatives of the Board nor the representatives of the Processor may raise issues in the arbitration which have not been previously discussed in negotiations.
- (4) Each side shall have three days following submission of the written statements to file any reply to the written statements, and if either or both parties wish to appear in person before the arbitrator, they must do so within five days of filing any reply material.
- (5) The arbitrator shall render a decision within seven days of submission of the reply to the written statements, or the in-person submissions before the arbitrator, as the case may be, and shall select one of the final offers made in its entirety, without modification.
- (6) The arbitrator, in making his decision, shall consider the factors outlined in section 4.
- Delegation 9. Upon the selection of an arbitrator, the Board shall delegate to the arbitrator, for the purpose of establishing a binding contract on buyers and sellers of Processing Potatoes, the Board's powers:

Extracts from "Vital Statistics Act"

"Stillbirth" means the complete expulsion or extraction from its mother, after at least 20 weeks' pregnancy or after attaining a weight of at least 500 grams, of a product of conception in which, after such expulsion or extraction, there is no breathing, beating of the heart, pulsation of the umbilical cord, or unmistakable movement of voluntary muscle.

11. (1) Where a stillbirth occurs, the person who would have been responsible for the registration thereof as provided in section 3, if it had been a birth, shall complete and provide to the funeral director a statement in the prescribed form respecting the stillbirth.
- (3) Upon receipt of the statement, the funeral director shall complete the statement setting forth the proposed date and place of burial, cremation or other disposition of the body and shall provide the statement to the division registrar.

Instructions

In case of more than one stillborn child at a birth, a separate return must be made for each, and the number of each, in order of birth, stated.

- (1) Name of Child.—In place of the given name the word "Stillbirth" may be printed.
- (15) Name of Father/Other Parent.—In the case of the parents not being married, the name of the father/other parent shall not appear on the certificate unless accompanied by his/her and the mother's written request.
- (33) Physician's Statement of Cause of Stillbirth.—The morbid conditions relating to stillbirth are divided into two groups. In Part I are those causally related to the "Immediate Cause" and the Antecedent causes, and in Part II those not so related. In most cases a statement of cause under Part I will suffice. When it is necessary to record more than one entry these should be stated in order so as to indicate their mutual relationship.
- (a) Name first the "Immediate Cause" of stillbirth, i.e., the foetal disease, injury or complication which caused the stillbirth. Avoid the use of such terms as "Prematurity", "Birth Injury", "Cerebral Haemorrhage", "Asphyxia", etc., alone without stating, if possible, the primary factor responsible for these conditions.
- (b) Then give the antecedent causes, i.e. the foetal and/or maternal conditions (if any) of which the immediate cause was the consequence, in order of causal relationship, stating the most recent one first and then others in order. Also check off whether the reported condition was a "foetal" or "maternal" condition.
- (c) Part II should be reserved for "other important contributory morbid conditions", particularly when the stillbirth was due to a combination of conditions none of which would have been fatal alone. Here too, check off whether "foetal" or "maternal".
- (d) Use accepted terms for morbid conditions and never record mere symptoms only.

The following examples illustrate the essential principles in the use of the form.

Definition: Assisted Conception—

"assisted conception" means conception by a means other than sexual intercourse and includes the fertilization of the mother's ovum outside of her uterus and subsequent implantation of the fertilized ovum in her.

Instructions

Physician's Statement of Cause of Death. – The morbid conditions relating to death are divided on the certificate into two groups. In Group I are those related to the disease or condition causing death. In Group II are those morbid conditions which are contributory to the death, but not related to the disease or condition causing it. In all cases where this can be regarded as adequate (see Example 1), but where the physician finds it necessary to record more than one cause it is important that these be stated in the position provided on the form as indicative of their mutual relationship. This information is sought so that the selection of the cause for admission may be made in the light of the certifier's viewpoint.

- (a) Name first the immediate cause of death, i.e., the disease, injury or complication which caused death (not mode of dying or terminal condition).
- (b) Then give other morbid conditions (if any) of which it was the consequence, in order of causal relationship (due to) stating the most recent one first and then others in order.

- (c) Entries under Group II should be reserved for "other significant conditions contributing to the death, but not related to the disease or condition causing it".
- (d) Accepted terms for morbid conditions should always be used – never record mere symptoms.

- (e) Maternal Death. – Qualify all diseases resulting from pregnancy, childbirth, miscarriage or abortion, e.g., "puerperal septicæmia", "eclampsia, arising during pregnancy". Distinguish between septicæmia originating in abortion and in childbirth.

- (f) Cancer. – In all cases the organ or part FIRST affected should be specified.

- (g) Violent Death. – Coroner, medical examiners and physicians who certify to deaths from violent causes should clearly indicate, in all cases, the fundamental distinction of whether the death was due to accident, suicide, or homicide, and then state the manner and nature of injury. The circumstances of each accident should be stated as fully as possible, e.g., a motor vehicle accident should be designated as such, and the type of vehicle involved, e.g., "truck", "private car", etc.

The following examples illustrate the essential principles in the use of the form.
