EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 revokes the definition of “county” from the definition section.

SECTION 2 allows registered producers attending a meeting at which an election is being held to determine the number of members on the board, which shall not be less than four and not more than six. Removes the need for registered producers to be from a certain county to be elected to the board. The section also sets out that the current members of the board continue to be members of the board until their current terms expire and their successors assume office.

SECTIONS 3 and 4 removes the requirement that a producer be registered in the county in which the producer seeks to vote. The section also removes a provision that states a registered producer that is a partnership, corporation, cooperative or syndicate of any type shall be entitled to only one vote. Under section 6 of these amendments, this provision is moved to subsection 12(2.1) of the regulations.

SECTION 5 provides that the board appoint a returning officer to conduct an election, a nominating committee to provide a list of the registered producers that have agreed to be nominated for election to the board, and the notification, nomination and election process to be followed. If no nominations are received the current members of the board are deemed to have been re-elected.

SECTION 6 removes references to county which will no longer be used, provides for producers whose names appear on the register of producers to cast a ballot for each vacant position, and for corporations, partnerships, cooperatives, syndicates or other business groups to cast only one vote for each vacancy by a representative. The section also states that the election be by secret ballot and the ballots must be counted by the Returning Officer.

SECTION 7 removes references to county which will no longer be used.

SECTION 8 removes references to county as counties are no longer used to determine eligibility of a producer to serve on the board or to vote for a member of the board.

SECTION 9 removes the requirement that a member of the board only represent the registered producers of the member's county.

SECTION 10 provides that the register of producers kept by the secretary of the board does not have to list the producers by county.

SECTION 11 removes a requirement that the board call annual meetings or producers in each county.

SECTION 12 removes the reference to county meetings which are no longer required.

SECTION 13 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
