PART II
REGULATIONS

EC2014-238

ANIMAL HEALTH AND PROTECTION ACT
BEE HEALTH REGULATIONS
AMENDMENT

(Approved by His Honour the Lieutenant Governor in Council dated April 15, 2014.)

Pursuant to section 4 of the Animal Health and Protection Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. A-11.1 Council made the following regulations:

1. Schedule A - Bee Diseases of the Animal Health and Protection Act Bee Health Regulations (EC271/01) is amended

(a) by the revocation of clause 1(a); and

(b) in section 2,

(i) in clause (b), by the deletion of the period and the substitution of a semicolon, and

(ii) by the addition of the following after clause (b):

(c) honey bee tracheal mite;

2. These regulations come into force on April 26, 2014.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 amends the regulations to delete the “honey bee tracheal mite” from the Class A Disease category, which lists bee diseases that are exotic to the province, and add it to the Class B Disease category, which lists bee diseases that are present in the province, of Schedule A.

SECTION 2 provides for the commencement of these regulations.

- 13. Each candidate may appoint one agent only to represent the candidate at each polling station, and the agent shall carry a certificate of appointment as agent signed by the candidate.

Poll Closing and Counting Ballots

- 14. At the close of the poll, and in the presence of the poll clerk and the candidates or agents or, if none are present, then in the presence of at least two eligible voters, the deputy returning officer shall
- Duties of returning officer at poll close
- (a) open the ballot box; and
 - (b) count the votes by using the following method:
 - (i) the deputy returning officer shall have the poll clerk complete the tally sheet and give a tally sheet to at least two other persons present in the polling station,
 - (ii) after each person present is given full opportunity to examine a ballot, the deputy returning officer shall decide whether the ballot should be rejected or counted,
 - (iii) if the ballot is counted, the deputy returning officer shall call out the vote and have it entered on the tally sheet, and
 - (iv) if the ballot is rejected, the deputy returning officer shall place it in a separate envelope.
- 15. If during the counting of the votes, any of the persons referred to in section 14 objects to any ballot, the deputy returning officer shall hear and decide every question arising out of the objection, and the deputy returning officer's decision is final.
- Objection to ballot
- 16. (1) After counting the votes, the deputy returning officer shall
- Duties of returning officer after counting ballots
- (a) place the ballots for each candidate in marked envelopes and seal them;
 - (b) complete the required number of statements of poll supplied by the Chief Electoral Officer;
 - (c) if two eligible voters were present during the counting of the votes, require the two eligible voters to sign the statement of poll; and
 - (d) deposit all ballots, credential certificates, tally sheets and the poll book in the ballot box.
- (2) The deputy returning officer shall, immediately on completion of the duties specified in subsection (1), deliver all ballot boxes with their contents to the returning officer for the electoral zone or as otherwise directed by the Chief Electoral Officer.
- Delivery to returning officer
- (3) The returning officer shall then remove the poll books from the ballot boxes, complete the required number of copies of a consolidated statement of the polling stations within the electoral zone and dispose of them as follows:
- Consolidated statement
- (a) one consolidated statement shall be retained;
 - (b) one consolidated statement shall be delivered to the Chief Electoral Officer within twenty-four hours after the date designated as election day; and
 - (c) one consolidated statement shall be delivered or mailed to each candidate.

Security of ballot boxes, etc. (4) The returning officer shall secure the ballot box or boxes, credential certificates, ballots, and all other documents or materials used at polling stations within the electoral zone in accordance with the instructions of the Chief Electoral Officer.

Recounts

Candidate may request recount within two days 17. (1) Within two working days after election day, any candidate may request the Chief Electoral Officer to recount all the ballots cast for trustees in the candidate's electoral zone.

Recount within two days (2) The recount shall commence not later than two working days after the request is received under subsection (1).

Time and place of recount (3) The Chief Electoral Officer shall notify the candidates concerned of the time and place at which the ballots will be recounted and the final addition made.

Recount, who may be present (4) At a recount of the ballots and final addition by the Chief Electoral Officer, the returning officer shall be present, and each candidate shall be entitled to be present and to be represented by one agent.

Final addition (5) At the time and place specified by the Chief Electoral Officer under subsection (3) and in the presence of the persons authorized to be present, the Chief Electoral Officer shall make a final addition from the statement of the poll or polls supplied by the returning officer and shall, for that purpose, open the sealed envelopes containing the ballots and count all the votes or ballots for trustee returned by the returning officer, for that purpose.

Chief Electoral Officer recounts and verifies (6) The Chief Electoral Officer shall recount the ballots according to the rules set out in section 14 for a deputy returning officer and shall verify or correct the statement of each poll by recording the ballot count and the number of votes cast for each candidate.

Recount completed, ballots sealed (7) Upon the completion of the recount or as soon as the results of the poll are ascertained, the Chief Electoral Officer shall seal the ballots in their respective envelopes.

If equality of votes of recount (8) When the Chief Electoral Officer, upon completion of the recount of all polls and the final addition for the electoral zone, finds that an equality of votes exists between the candidates, the winning candidate shall be determined as follows:

- (a) out of an opaque container which contains ten balls numbered 1 to 10, the Chief Electoral Officer shall draw one for each tied candidate and, for the purpose of the draw, the numbers drawn shall be attributed to the names of the candidates in alphabetical order;
- (b) the candidate who draws a 5 or closest to 5 shall be declared the winner;

(c) in the event that the candidates are equally close to 5, the draw shall be repeated until a winner is declared.

(9) The Chief Electoral Officer shall forthwith certify the result of the recount and final addition. CEO certifies recount

Election Documents

18. (1) The Chief Electoral Officer shall retain the contents of the ballot boxes and all documents pertaining to the election for two months following election day. Ballots retained for 2 months

(2) The Chief Electoral Officer may destroy election documents after the expiry of the time required in subsection (1) except where there is any court proceeding related to the election of a trustee pending. CEO may destroy election documents

(3) No person may have access to election documents except pursuant to a court order. Access to election documents only by court order

Irregularities, False Declarations

19. No irregularity in the mode of electing a trustee invalidates the election. Irregularities

20. (1) Every person who wilfully makes a false declaration of right to vote is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000. False declaration, penalty

(2) Every person who contravenes a provision of these regulations, other than that set out in subsection (1), is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to

- (a) a fine not exceeding $2,000;
- (b) imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years; or
- (c) to both fine and imprisonment.

(3) In respect of a contravention of these regulations, every person who Idem

(a) attempts to commit or is an accessory after the fact to the commission of; or
 (b) aids, abets, counsels or procures the commission of, the contravention is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to the same punishment as the person who commits it.

Election Results

21. (1) The Chief Electoral Officer shall declare to be elected the following persons: Candidates declared elected

- (a) in an electoral zone to be represented by one trustee, the candidate having the largest number of votes;

- (b) in an electoral zone to be represented by two trustees, the two candidates with the highest number of votes; and
- (c) in an electoral zone to be represented by three trustees, the three candidates with the highest number of votes.

- Report to Minister (2) The Chief Electoral Officer shall report to the Minister within five working days after election day
- (a) the names of the candidates who have been declared elected; and
 - (b) the electoral zone that each of the elected candidates represents.
- Publish names of trustees 22. Within twenty-eight days after election day, the Minister shall publish the names of the trustees in the Royal Gazette.

Pecuniary Interests

- Trustee's pecuniary interest 23. (1) If a trustee has a pecuniary interest in any matter and is present at a meeting of the school board in which the matter is considered, the trustee
- (a) shall disclose the general nature of the pecuniary interest prior to any discussion of the matter;
 - (b) shall not take part in the discussion of or vote on any question in respect of the matter;
 - (c) shall not attempt in any way, whether before, during or after the meeting, to influence the voting on any question in respect of the matter; and
 - (d) subject to subsection (2), shall leave the room in which the meeting is being held until the discussion and voting on the matter are concluded.
- Funds already allocated (2) If the matter with respect to which the trustee has a pecuniary interest is the payment of an account for which funds have previously been committed, it is not necessary for the trustee to leave the room.
- Pecuniary interest not disclosed (3) If a trustee's pecuniary interest is not disclosed as required by subsection (1) by reason of the trustee's absence from a meeting, the trustee shall disclose the pecuniary interest and otherwise comply with the requirements of this section at the next school board meeting attended by the trustee with the pecuniary interest.
- Abstention and disclosure in minutes (4) The abstention of a trustee under subsection (1), and the disclosure of a trustee's pecuniary interest under subsections (1) or (3), shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- Disclosure of pecuniary interest does not disqualify (5) If a trustee
- (a) has a pecuniary interest in a matter before the school board, any committee of the school board or any committee, commission or agency to which the trustee is appointed as a representative of the school board; and
 - (b) makes a disclosure of that pecuniary interest in accordance with this section, that trustee is not disqualified from being a trustee by reason of having that pecuniary interest.

(6) A trustee who contravenes this section is deemed to be disqualified as a trustee of the school board, pursuant to clause 38(1)(f) of the Act.

Contravention, deemed disqualification

24. For the purposes of sections 23 and 25, the pecuniary interests

(a) of the spouse, children or parents of a person; or

(b) of the parents of the spouse of a person, that are known to the person or which the person ought reasonably to have known, shall be deemed to be the pecuniary interests of the person.

Pecuniary interest of family members

25. (1) Section 23 does not apply to a pecuniary interest in any matter that a trustee may have

Exceptions

(a) as an elector of the school system;

(b) by reason of the trustee having a pecuniary interest in the matter which is a pecuniary interest in common with electors generally;

(c) by reason of the trustee's appointment as the representative of the school board to any commission, committee or other body;

(d) by reason of the trustee being entitled to receive any allowance, honorarium, indemnity, benefit, expenses or remuneration payable to a trustee in respect of the matter;

(e) by reason of the trustee's employment with the Government of Canada, the Government of Prince Edward Island or a federal or provincial Crown corporation or agency, except with respect to a matter directly affecting the department, corporation or agency of which the person is an employee;

(f) by reason of the person being a member of a credit union or a co-operative formed under an Act of the Legislature or of the Parliament of Canada; or

(g) by reason only of a pecuniary interest of the trustee that is so remote or insignificant in its nature that it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to influence the trustee.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who is an employee or director of a credit union or a co-operative.

Director of credit union or co-op

26. (1) If a school board passes a bylaw to that effect, each trustee of a school board shall file with the secretary of the school board a statement showing

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes the electoral zones for the purpose of the election of trustees for the French Language School Board. The province is divided into 6 zones. The zones are described in the Schedule to the regulations.

SECTION 2 establishes that a person who meets the criteria set out in sections 29 and 32 of the Act is eligible to vote in an election of trustees for the French Language School Board.

SECTION 3 provides that an eligible voter may vote in the electoral zone in which he or she resided on the date the election was called.

SECTION 4 authorizes the Chief Electoral Officer of the province to administer school board elections and to appoint those employees the Chief Electoral Officer considers necessary to perform the duties of the office.

SECTION 5 requires the Chief Electoral Officer to publish the call for nominations for an election within 32 clear days and not less than 26 clear days prior to the last Monday in May in an election year, and also provides that on election day, the polling stations shall open at 12 noon and close at 8 p.m.

SECTION 6 establishes the powers and duties of the Chief Electoral Officer for the purposes of the regulations. The section also authorizes the Chief Electoral Officer to exercise specified special powers as necessary: to extend or shorten time periods, to increase the number of election officers or polling stations or to adapt the provisions of the regulations to the circumstances. However, the Chief Electoral Officer is not permitted to extend the hours at an ordinary polling station or for accepting nomination papers on nomination day, or to change the date of the election.

SECTION 7 authorizes the Chief Electoral Officer to appoint returning officers for the electoral zones and establishes their duties. The section also authorizes each returning officer to appoint a deputy returning officer for each polling station within an electoral zone, and establishes the duties of the deputy returning officers.

SECTION 8 authorizes the nomination of a candidate for trustee by any ten or more persons who are qualified to vote under section 32 of the Act. Nominations shall be accepted by the returning officer at any time between the Monday that is at least 26 clear days and not more than 32 clear days before election day and 4 p.m. on nomination day, which is the Friday that is the 17th day before election day.

SECTION 9 provides that within 24 hours after the close of nominations, the returning officer shall deliver the nomination papers to the Chief Electoral Officer, who shall determine the eligibility of candidates and shall publish their names and electoral zones and the location of the polling stations in each electoral zone.

SECTION 10 provides for election of trustees by acclamation in an electoral zone where only the required number of trustees have been nominated.

SECTION 11 establishes the duties of an eligible voter at a polling station and the duties of the deputy returning officer. The section also establishes specified offices related to ballots and ballot boxes.

SECTION 12 establishes the procedure to be followed where an eligible voter is unable to vote in the manner set out in section 11. The voter may be aided to vote by a friend or by the deputy returning officer, and the assistance provided to the voter shall be recorded in the poll book by the poll clerk.

SECTION 13 authorizes each candidate to appoint one agent to represent the candidate at each polling station, and requires the agent to carry a certificate of appointment signed by the candidate.

SECTION 14 establishes the process for opening a ballot box and counting the votes.

SECTION 15 provides for the deputy returning officer to hear and decide any objection raised in respect to a ballot during the counting process.

SECTION 16 establishes the process for completing the statements of poll and delivering the ballot boxes, ballots, credential certificates, tally sheets and poll book to the returning officer who prepares the consolidated statement of the polling stations within the electoral zone and delivers it to the Chief Electoral Officer within 24 hours.

SECTION 17 provides the procedure for a recount of ballots. Any candidate may, within 2 working days after election day, request that the Chief Electoral Officer recount all the ballots cast for trustees in the candidate's electoral zone. The votes are recounted according to the process set out in section 14 and the Chief Electoral Officer is required to certify the result.

SECTION 18 provides that the ballot boxes and their contents and all other documents pertaining to the election are to be retained for 2 months following election day, and may then be destroyed unless there is a court proceeding related to the election of a trustee still pending. The section also provides that no person may have access to election documents except pursuant to a court order.

SECTION 19 provides that an irregularity in the mode of electing a trustee does not invalidate the election.

SECTION 20 establishes an offence of making a false declaration of right to vote and provides a penalty on conviction of a fine not exceeding $2,000 for the offence. The section also provides a penalty for any other contravention of the regulations.

SECTION 21 requires the Chief Electoral Officer to declare the successful candidates elected and to report to the Minister within 5 working days after election day the names of the elected candidates and the zone each candidate represents.

SECTION 22 requires the Minister to publish the names of the trustees in the Royal Gazette within 28 days after election day.

SECTION 23 establishes the rules to be followed by a trustee in respect of a pecuniary interest in a matter that comes before the school board. The trustee is required to disclose the general nature of the pecuniary interest before the matter is discussed in accordance with the rules set out in the section. A failure to disclose a pecuniary interest in accordance with the section is a contravention that disqualifies the trustee, pursuant to subclause 38(1)(f)(ii) of the Act.

SECTION 24 clarifies that the pecuniary interests of a person's spouse, children, parents or spouse's parents that the person knows about are deemed to be the pecuniary interests of the person for the purposes of sections 23 and 25.

SECTION 25 specifies exceptions to the rules respecting pecuniary interests set out in section 23.

SECTION 26 authorizes a school board, by bylaw, to require each trustee to file with it a statement respecting the names and employment of the trustee and the trustee's spouse and children and the names of any corporation, firm or other organization in which the trustee or the trustee's spouse and children have a pecuniary interest. This information may be provided to all of the trustees of the school board and to officials and employees of the school board as directed by the school board.

SECTION 27 establishes the maximum amount of remuneration that may be paid annually by a school board to its trustees, exclusive of approved expenses.

SECTION 28 authorizes a school board to pay the amount specified under section 27 to its trustees either as annual remuneration or as an allowance for each meeting attended.

SECTION 29 authorizes a school board to establish different rates of remuneration for the chairperson, committee chairpersons and trustees and for regular board meeting and committee meetings.

SECTION 30 provides that an amount not exceeding one-third of a trustee's annual remuneration shall be designated as having been paid in respect of the trustee's general expenses in the discharge of the trustee's duties.

SECTION 31 authorizes a trustee to request the school board to deduct income tax in respect of the trustee's remuneration and to remit it to the Canada Revenue Agency on behalf of the trustee.

SECTION 32 authorizes a school board to pay trustee's expenses for travel, meals, accommodation and other incidentals in addition to their remuneration at the rates applicable to provincial government employees.

SECTION 33 adopts the Schedule to the regulations.

SECTION 34 revokes the School Boards Regulations (EC225/96).

SECTION 35 provides for the commencement of the regulations.
