EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes definitions for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 establishes the Board for the purposes of administering the levy and the marketing of lobster, and to represent and protect the interests of lobster fishers provincially and nationally. The section also provides that lobster fishers who are members of the Prince Edward Island Fishermen's Association Inc. and hold lobster licenses issued by the Department of Fisheries and Oceans (Canada) are deemed to be registered lobster fishers under these regulations for a period of six months after the regulations come into force.

SECTION 3 provides that the initial members of the Board shall be the current members of the board of directors of the Prince Edward Island Fishermen's Association Inc., with the chairperson of the Association serving as the president of the Board, and provides for the first meeting of the Board.

SECTION 4 establishes the ongoing rules for the membership and operation of the Board, including the rules for the election of members and officers and their terms.

SECTION 5 establishes rules for the operations of the Board in carrying out its functions under the regulations.

SECTION 6 authorizes the Board to appoint committees to assist or advise it as necessary, and establishes rules for any committees it appoints.

SECTION 7 establishes a requirement for the Board to elect and appoint its officers after its annual general meeting but not later than April 15 in each year.

SECTION 8 establishes the rights and duties of the chairperson, vice-chairperson, secretary and treasurer of the Board.

SECTION 9 establishes the duties of the members of the Board and provides for the procedure to be followed in the event of a vacancy on the Board.

SECTION 10 provides for the appointment of an assistant for an officer of the Board and establishes the powers and duties of the assistant.

SECTION 11 authorizes the chairperson of the Board to call meetings of the Board and specifies the procedure to be followed in giving notice of a meeting to members.

SECTION 12 specifies the procedure to be followed with respect to a special meeting requested by registered lobster fishers, and provides that the Board is not bound by the decision arising from the special meeting.

SECTION 13 provides that an order of the Board respecting the borrowing of money or other specified financial activities of the Board must state the purpose for using the money or incurring the debt or liability, and is not effective unless passed at a meeting called for that purpose by the Board at which not less than two-thirds of the Board members are present and vote in favour of the order.

SECTION 14 authorizes the Board to require that the treasurer and other officers or employees provide a bond as security for the performance of their duties, and provides that the Board shall pay the cost of the bond if it is required.

SECTION 15 requires the Board to invest its surplus funds only in investment certificates of a chartered bank, trust company, credit union or the provincial or federal treasury.

SECTION 16 requires the Board to establish and maintain a register of lobster fishers who are qualified in accordance with the section, and requires the secretary of the Board to update the register at least 90 days prior to any vote, and otherwise as the Board considers necessary. The register shall be available for inspection by lobster fishers without charge, and a lobster fisher may appeal the inclusion or removal of his or her name from the register in accordance with the Appeals Procedure Regulations under the Act.

SECTION 17 requires the Board to establish and maintain a list of all licensed lobster buyers who are engaged in purchasing lobster from lobster fishers.

SECTION 18 establishes the eligibility criteria for both standing for and voting for membership on the Board.

SECTION 19 requires each local association to appoint a returning officer to conduct elections for the membership of the Board.

SECTION 20 establishes the procedure to be followed by each local association in opening and counting the ballots, and requires the Board to file a complete report of the results from each local association with the Council. The section also provides that candidates are elected by majority vote, and in the event of a tie, the bylaws of the local association shall determine how to complete the election. If the local association has not enacted a bylaw on that point, the returning officer is empowered to cast a deciding vote to complete the election.

SECTION 21 provides that the actions of the Board are valid despite any defect or irregularity in the election, appointment or qualifications of any of its members.

SECTION 22 provides that no action shall be brought against any person acting in good faith under the Act, the regulations or a Board order, and indemnifies the members and officers of the Board for their actions in carrying out their duties.

SECTION 23 provides that Board members must disclose any interest in individuals or companies doing business with the Board, and provides that a member with an interest shall not participate in the discussion or vote on a matter between the Board and a company of which the member is a director, member, officer or shareholder.

SECTION 24 requires a member-elect to take the specified oath of office prior to being confirmed as a member of the Board.

SECTION 25 requires lobster fishers to pay a levy of one cent per pound of lobster sold to buyers, and authorizes the Board to ensure that the levy is collected.

SECTION 26 authorizes the holding of a levy meeting to consider changes to the amount of the levy where two-thirds of the Board members vote in favour of it, and specifies the procedure to be followed in the holding of the levy meeting.

SECTION 27 prohibits the buying and selling of lobster in a manner contrary to the Act, the regulations or a Board order.

SECTION 28 provides that the Lieutenant Governor in Council vests the specified powers in the Board to enable it to make the orders necessary to give effect to its purposes and the regulations.

SECTION 29 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
