Deadline to present proposal	17. For the purpose of clause 106(9)(d) of the Act, the prescribed period before the receipt of a proposal is two years.
Minimum support required	18. (1) For the purpose of clause 106(9)(e) of the Act, the minimum amount of support required for a shareholder's proposal is (a) three per cent of the total number of shares voted, if the proposal was introduced at an annual meeting of shareholders; (b) six per cent of the total number of shares voted at its last submission to shareholders, if the proposal was introduced at two annual meetings of shareholders; and (c) ten per cent of the total number of shares voted at its last submission to shareholders, if the proposal was introduced at three or more annual meetings of shareholders.
Duplicate proposal	(2) For the purpose of clause 106(9)(e) of the Act, the prescribed period is five years.

19. For the purpose of subsection 106(10) of the Act, the prescribed period during which the corporation is not required to set out a proposal in a management proxy circular is two years. Refusal to include proposal

20. For the purpose of subsection 106(12) of the Act, the prescribed period for giving notice is 21 days after the receipt by the corporation of the proposal. Notice of refusal

PART 6 - PROXIES AND PROXY SOLICITATION

21. In this Part, “NI 51-102” means National Instrument 51-102 of the Canadian Securities Administrators, entitled Continuous Disclosure Obligations, published in both official languages on December 19, 2003, as amended from time to time. National Instrument 51-102

22. For the purpose of subsection 119(1) of the Act, a form of proxy shall be in the form provided for in section 9.4 (Content of Form of Proxy) of NI 51-102. Form of proxy

23. (1) Subject to subsection (3), a management proxy circular shall be in the form provided for in Form 51-102F5 (Information Circular) of NI 51-102, and shall, in the circumstances described in Item 8 of Part 2 of that Form, include the statement referred to in that Item. Management proxy circular

(2) A management proxy circular shall also set out the following: Required contents

- (a) the percentage of votes required for the approval of any matter that is to be submitted to a vote of shareholders at the meeting, other than the election of directors;
- (b) a statement of the right of a shareholder to dissent under section 159 of the Act with respect to any matter to be acted on at the meeting and a brief summary of the procedure to be followed to exercise that right;
- (c) a statement, signed by a director or an officer of the corporation, that the contents and the sending of the circular have been approved by the directors;
- (d) a statement indicating the final date by which the corporation must receive a proposal for the purpose of paragraph 106(9)(a) of the Act.

(3) A management proxy circular for a corporation that is not a distributing corporation is not required to set out the information provided for in Part 1(c) or Item 9, 10 or 16 of Part 2 of Form 51-102F5 (Information Circular) of NI 51-102, or the statement referred to in Item 8 of Part 2 of that Form. Exception, not a distributing corporation

24. (1) A dissident’s proxy circular shall be in the form provided for in Form 51-102F5 (Information Circular) of NI 51-102, and shall, in the circumstances described in Item 8 of Part 2 of that Form, include the statement referred to in that Item. Dissident’s proxy circular

Exception, not a distributing corporation	(2) A dissident's proxy circular for a corporation that is not a distributing corporation is not required to set out the information provided for in Part 1(c) or Item 9, 10 or 16 of Part 2 of Form 51-102F5 (Information Circular) of NI 51-102, or the statement referred to in Item 8 of Part 2 of that Form.
Exception, information not known or ascertainable	25. Information that is not known to a dissident and that cannot be ascertained by the dissident on reasonable inquiry may be omitted from a dissident's proxy circular, but the circumstances that render the information unavailable shall be disclosed in the proxy circular.
Statement of approval	26. A dissident's proxy circular shall contain a statement signed by the dissident or a person authorized by the dissident that the contents and the sending of the circular have been approved by the dissident.
Preparation of financial statements	27. (1) If financial statements accompany or form part of a management proxy circular, the statements shall be prepared in the manner described in Part 7.
Accompanying report	(2) The financial statements referred to in subsection (1), if not reported on by the auditor of the corporation, shall be accompanied by a report of the chief financial officer of the corporation stating that the financial statements have not been audited but have been prepared in the manner described in Part 7.
Dissident's proxy circular not required	28. (1) For the purpose of subsection 120(3) of the Act, the prescribed circumstances are those in which the solicitation conveyed by public broadcast, speech or publication sets out the information provided for in Items 3.2, 3.4, 5(b) and 11 of Part 2 of Form 51-102F5 (Information Circular) of NI 51-102.
Information and documents required	(2) A person making a solicitation referred to in subsection (1) shall send the required information and a copy of any related written communication to the Director and to the corporation before soliciting proxies.

PART 7 - FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

Preparation of financial statements	29. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the financial statements referred to in Part XIII of the Act shall be prepared in accordance with the standards recommended in the Handbook of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada, as amended from time to time.
Exception, distributing corporation	(2) A distributing corporation may prepare the financial statements referred to in Part XIII of the Act in accordance with the standards permitted in the rules made under section 169 of the Securities Act .
Required contents of financial statements	30. (1) The financial statements referred to in section 125 of the Act shall include at least (a) a balance sheet;

- (b) an income statement;
- (c) a statement of retained earnings; and
- (d) a statement of changes in financial position.

(2) Financial statements need not be designated by the names set out in clauses (1)(a) to (d). Names of statements may vary

PART 8 - FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES

31. (1) Despite subclause 153(1)(c)(ii) of the Act, the resolutions approving the amalgamation of a holding corporation with one or more of its subsidiary corporations may provide that the corporate name set out in the articles of amalgamation is not the same as that set out in the articles of the amalgamating holding corporation. Corporate name, vertical amalgamation

(2) Despite subclause 153(2)(b)(ii) of the Act, the resolutions approving the amalgamation of two or more wholly owned subsidiary corporations of the same holding body corporate may provide that the corporate name set out in the articles of amalgamation is not the same as that set out in the articles of the amalgamating subsidiary corporation whose shares are not cancelled. Disclosure Required

33. Each of the following documents issued or published by a constrained share corporation shall indicate conspicuously the general nature of its constrained share provisions:

Disclosure required

- (a) a certificate representing a voting share;
- (b) a management proxy circular; and
- (c) a prospectus, statement of material facts, registration statement or similar document.

Powers and Duties of Directors

34. (1) The directors of a constrained share corporation that has provisions in its articles imposing a constraint referred to in subclause 32(d)(i) or (ii) shall refuse to register a transfer of a voting share of the corporation in accordance with the articles if

Refusal to register
transfer of voting
share

- (a) the total number of voting shares held by or on behalf of persons in the constrained class exceeds the maximum aggregate holdings and the transfer is to a person in the constrained class;
- (b) the total number of voting shares held by or on behalf of persons in the constrained class does not exceed the maximum aggregate holdings and the transfer would cause the number of shares held by persons in the constrained class to exceed the maximum aggregate holdings;
- (c) the total number of voting shares held by or on behalf of a person in the constrained class exceeds the maximum individual holdings and the transfer is to that person; or
- (d) the total number of voting shares held by or on behalf of a person in the constrained class does not exceed the maximum individual holdings and the transfer would cause the number of shares held by that person to exceed the maximum individual holdings.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the directors of a constrained share corporation that is described in that subsection shall register a transfer of a voting share of the corporation to a person in the constrained class if that person establishes that they were the beneficial owner of that share on the day on which the corporation became a constrained share corporation.

Exception, beneficial owner

(3) The directors of a constrained share corporation that is described in subsection (1) shall not issue a voting share of the corporation to a person in the constrained class if the directors are required by that subsection to refuse to register a transfer of the share.

Prohibition, issue of voting share

What constitutes issued share

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3), the directors may count as issued shares the voting shares that the corporation is currently offering to its shareholders or prospective shareholders.

Share ownership contrary to constraint

35. The directors of a constrained share corporation that has provisions in its articles imposing a constraint referred to in subclause 32(d)(iii)

(a) shall not issue a share of the corporation to a person whose ownership of the share would be contrary to the constraint; and

(b) shall refuse to register a transfer of a share of the corporation if the transfer is to a person whose ownership of the share is contrary to the constraint.

Limitation on Voting Rights

Application of sections 62 and 63

36. Sections 37 and 38 apply to a constrained share corporation that has provisions in its articles imposing a constraint referred to in subclause 32(d)(i) or (ii).

Maximum
individual holdings

37. (1) If, on the day on which a corporation becomes a constrained share corporation, the total number of voting shares of the corporation held by or on behalf of a person in the constrained class exceeds the maximum individual holdings, the person or the person's nominee may only, in person or by proxy, exercise the voting rights attached to the maximum individual holdings so held on that day or on any later day.

Exercise after reduction

(2) After the total number of shares held by or on behalf of the person referred to in subsection (1) is reduced below the maximum individual holdings, the person or the person's nominee may, in person or by proxy, exercise the voting rights attached to shares held.

Prohibition, shares exceeding maximum
individual holdings

38. (1) Except as provided in subsection 37(1), if the total number of voting shares of a constrained share corporation held by or on behalf of a person in the constrained class exceeds the maximum individual holdings, no person shall, in person or by proxy, exercise the voting rights attached to those shares.

Proxy holder, shares less than maximum

(2) If it appears from the securities register of a constrained share corporation that the total number of voting shares held by a shareholder is less than the maximum individual holdings, a proxyholder for the shareholder may vote those shares unless the proxyholder has knowledge that the shares beneficially owned by the shareholder exceed the maximum individual holdings.

Prohibition, corporation or trust
in constrained class

(3) If, after the day on which a corporation becomes a constrained share corporation, a corporation or trust that was not a person in the constrained class becomes a person in the constrained class, the corporation or trust shall not exercise the voting rights attached to any shares it holds in the constrained share corporation while it is a person in the constrained class.

Disclosure of Beneficial Ownership

39. Section 40 applies to a constrained share corporation that has provisions in its articles imposing a constraint referred to in subclause 32(d)(i) or (ii). Application of section 40

40. (1) Subject to section 78 of the Act, the directors of a constrained share corporation may make, amend or repeal any bylaws required to administer the constrained share provisions set out in the articles of the corporation, including bylaws Bylaws

(a) to require any person in whose name shares of the corporation are registered to provide a statutory declaration under the Evidence Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. E-11, or the Evidence Act (Canada) concerning

(i) whether the shareholder is the beneficial owner of the shares of the corporation or holds them for a beneficial owner,

(ii) whether the shareholder is an associate of any other shareholder,

(iii) whether the shareholder or beneficial owner is a Canadian, and

(iv) any further relevant facts;

(b) to require any person seeking to have a transfer of a voting share registered in the person's name or to have a voting share issued to the person to provide a statutory declaration as described in clause (a); and

(c) to determine the circumstances in which any declarations are required, their form and the times when they are to be provided.

(2) If a person is required to provide a declaration under a bylaw made under subsection (1), the directors may refuse to register a transfer of a voting share in the person's name or to issue a voting share to the person until that person has provided the declaration. Refusal to register transfer without declaration

(3) In administering the constrained share provisions set out in the articles of a constrained share corporation, the directors of the corporation may rely on Reliance on declaration and knowledge

(a) a statement made in a declaration referred to in subsection (1) or (2); and

(b) the knowledge of a director, officer, employee, agent or mandatary of the corporation.

(4) If the directors are required to determine the total number of voting shares of a constrained share corporation held by or on behalf of persons other than Canadians, the directors may rely on the sum of the voting shares held by every shareholder whose latest address as shown in the securities register is Reliance on securities register

(a) outside Canada; and

(b) in Canada but who, to the knowledge of a director, officer, employee, agent or mandatary of the corporation, is not a Canadian.

Date of reliance (5) For the purpose of subsection (4), the directors may rely on the securities register of the constrained share corporation as of any date after the day on which the corporation became a constrained share corporation, but that date shall not be more than four months before the day on which the determination is made.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 defines the term “Act”.

SECTION 2 defines the term “distributing corporation”.

SECTION 3 specifies classes of persons for the purpose of the term “resident Canadian” as defined in the Act.

SECTION 4 sets out required criteria for a combined English and French corporation name.

SECTION 5 prohibits a corporate name that includes specified words, suggests specified things about the corporation, conflicts or is liable to be confused with another corporation or business name, contains a word or expression that is obscene or otherwise objectionable or is too general.

SECTION 6 defines the terms “delivery shares” and “particular subsidiary” for the purposes of Part 3 of these regulations.

SECTION 7 sets out required conditions precedent to the application of an exception respecting the acquisition of shares of a corporation by a subsidiary body corporate.

SECTION 8 sets out required conditions subsequent to the acquisition of shares pursuant to the exception referred to in section 7.

SECTION 9 sets out consequences for the contravention of sections 7 and 8.

SECTION 10 specifies periods of time within which a record date shall be fixed for purposes described in section 103 of the Act and the period of time within which notice of the record date shall be given.

SECTION 11 specifies the period of time within which directors shall provide notice of a shareholders meeting.

SECTION 12 sets out the means by which voting may be carried out at a shareholders meeting.

SECTION 13 sets out requirements related to eligibility to submit a proposal to an annual meeting of shareholders.

SECTION 14 specifies the period of time within which a corporation may require and a person shall provide proof of compliance with section 13.

SECTION 15 specifies 500 as the maximum number of words of a proposal and supporting statement.

SECTION 16 specifies a time period of 90 days before the anniversary date of the previous annual meeting of shareholders for the purposes of an exemption under clause 109(a) of the Act.

SECTION 17 specifies a period of two years before the receipt of a proposal for the purposes of an exemption under clause 109(d) of the Act.

SECTION 18 sets out the minimum amount of support required for a shareholders proposal not to be defeated in specified circumstances. It also specifies a period of five years before the receipt of a proposal for the purposes of clause 106(9)(e) of the Act.

SECTION 19 specifies a period of two years following the date of a shareholders meeting during which a corporation may refuse to circulate a proposal in specified circumstances.

SECTION 20 specifies a period of 21 days within which a corporation shall give notice of its refusal under section 19.

SECTION 21 defines a term for the purposes of Part 6 of these regulations.

SECTION 22 specifies the form of proxy for the purposes of section 119(1) of the Act.

SECTION 23 specifies the form and required contents of a management proxy circular. It provides an exception for a corporation that is not a distributing corporation.

SECTION 24 specifies the form of a dissident's proxy circular. It provides an exception for a corporation that is not a distributing corporation.

SECTION 25 provides that information not known or ascertainable by a dissident may be omitted from a dissident's proxy circular.

SECTION 26 requires that a dissident's proxy circular contain a signed statement that it has been approved by the dissident.

SECTION 27 provides that financial statements accompanying a management proxy circular shall be prepared in the manner required in Part 7 of these regulations and accompanied by a report of the chief financial officer of the corporation if not reported on by the auditor of the corporation.

SECTION 28 sets out circumstances in which an exception to the requirements for a dissident's proxy circular applies where the solicitation of proxies is conveyed by public broadcast, speech or publication.

SECTION 29 specifies the standards for the preparation of financial statements. It provides an exception for distributing corporations.

SECTION 30 sets out minimum required contents of financial statements.

SECTION 31 provides for a change of corporate name in articles of amalgamation.

SECTION 32 defines terms for the purposes of Part 9 of these regulations.

SECTION 33 specifies documents in which a constrained share corporation shall indicate the general nature of the constrained share provisions in its articles of incorporation.

SECTION 34 sets out circumstances in which a constrained share corporation imposing specified constraints shall refuse to register a transfer of a voting share of the corporation. It also sets out an exception. It prohibits the issuance of a voting share to a person in the constrained class where registration of a transfer of that share is prohibited. It provides that voting shares currently on offer may be counted as issued shares.

SECTION 35 prohibits a constrained share corporation imposing a specified constraint from issuing a share contrary to the constraint and requires the corporation to refuse to register a transfer of a share to a person whose ownership is constrained.

SECTION 36 specifies that sections 37 and 38 apply to a constrained share corporation imposing a specified constraint.

SECTION 37 provides for an existing shareholder who becomes a member of a constrained class to exercise the voting rights attached to the maximum individual holdings held on and after the day the corporation becomes a constrained share corporation. It also provides that after the total number of shares held by that person is reduced below the maximum individual holdings, the person may exercise the voting rights attached to those shares held.

SECTION 38 prohibits the exercise of voting rights in the circumstances described in section 37 except in accordance with section 37. It also allows for a proxyholder to vote shares where the total number of shares held by a shareholder is less than the maximum individual holdings. It prohibits a corporation or trust that becomes a member of a constrained class from exercising voting rights while in the constrained class.

SECTION 39 specifies that section 40 applies to a constrained share corporation imposing a specified constraint.

SECTION 40 provides for the directors of a constrained share corporation to make, amend or repeal bylaws requiring shareholders to provide a statutory declaration respecting certain matters and refuse to register a transfer of a voting share in the person's name or issue a voting share to the person until the declaration is provided. It provides that the directors may rely on declarations and knowledge in administering the constrained share provisions of the articles. It also provides for the determination of the total number of voting shares of a constrained share corporation.

SECTION 41 prescribes certain laws for the purposes of clauses 143(1)(b), (c) and (d) of the Act and defines "financial intermediary" for the purpose of clause 143(1)(b) of the Act.

SECTION 42 specifies that Part 10 of these regulations applies to an application for an exemption under specified provisions of the Act.

SECTION 43 sets out the time for filing certain applications for exemption and provides for the extension of the time where no prejudice will result.

SECTION 44 requires the Director to either grant the exemption or send a written notice of refusal to grant the exemption within 30 days of receiving an application for an exemption.

SECTION 45 provides that the Director may request further information in support of an application.

SECTION 46 requires the Director to give the applicant a copy of any information received from a source other than the applicant and allow the applicant to respond.

SECTION 47 provides that the Director may deal with an application without requested information if it is not provided.

SECTION 48 provides that where the Director does not comply with section 44, the applicant may exercise his or her rights under section 199 of the Act as if the Director had refused to grant the exemption.

SECTION 49 requires an annual return to be sent to the Director within 60 days after the anniversary date of incorporation and set out the required information as of that date.

SECTION 50 provides that the notices, documents and other information referred to section 207 of the Act are those referred to in sections 52 – 56 of the Act.

SECTION 51 provides that the consent referred to in clause 208(2)(a) of the Act shall be in writing. It also provides for electronic posting of information as an alternative to sending it directly to an addressee in specified circumstances.

SECTION 52 provides that for the purposes of subsection 208(3) of the Act, an addressee shall revoke his or her consent in writing.

SECTION 53 requires the provision of a notice, document or other information to multiple addresses concurrently.

SECTION 54 sets out when an electronic document is considered to have been provided.

SECTION 55 sets out when an electronic document is considered to have been received.

SECTION 56 sets out circumstances in which an exemption under section 217 of the Act applies.

SECTION 57 sets out circumstances in which articles of incorporation and a related certificate may be cancelled.

SECTION 58 requires a document to be kept for six years after receipt by the Director.

SECTION 59 provides that fees respecting certain activities under the Act are set out in the Schedule to these regulations. It states that no fee is payable for the issuance by the Director of certain documents. It also provides that the maximum fee for the issuance of a security certificate is $3.
