(3) Subsection 41(12) of the regulations is amended by the deletion of the word “his” and the substitution of the words “the producer’s”.

20. These regulations come into force on March 24, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 replaces the enacting clause of the regulations so that the clause refers to the provisions in the Natural Products Marketing Act that authorize the making of the regulations.

SECTION 2 updates the wording of a provision in the regulations to refer to the regulations as “regulations” rather than as an “Order”.
Section 2 also updates a reference to the Egg Producers of Prince Edward Island to become a reference to the Egg Farmers of PEI.

SECTION 3 changes the name of the commodity board from the Egg Producers of Prince Edward Island to the Egg Farmers of PEI, and continues the Egg Farmers of PEI as a body corporate.

SECTIONS 4 to 6 revise several provisions in the regulations to replace gender-specific wording with gender-neutral wording.

SECTION 7 updates the wording of a provision in the regulations to refer to the regulations as “regulations” rather than as an “Order in Council”.

SECTIONS 8 to 19 revise various provisions in the regulations to replace gender-specific wording with gender-neutral wording.

SECTION 20 provides for the commencement of these regulations.

REGULATED HEALTH PROFESSIONS ACT GENERAL REGULATIONS AMENDMENT

(Approved by Her Honour the Lieutenant Governor in Council dated March 14, 2018.)

Pursuant to section 96 of the Regulated Health Professions Act R.S.P.E.I. 1988, Cap. R-10.1, Council made the following regulations:

1. The Regulated Health Professions Act General Regulations (EC829/13) are amended by the addition of the following after section 1:

1.1 For the purpose of clause 12(2)(b) of the Act, an applicant is considered to be reasonably proficient in English if the applicant

Language proficiency

- (a) obtained, within the 24 months immediately preceding the application, the minimum score required by the council on an English language proficiency test administered by a language testing agency approved by council;
- (b) completed both primary and secondary education in English;
- (c) obtained the prescribed educational requirements for registration as a member from an educational institution in which the language of instruction, including the language used in any practicum, was English;

(d) did one or a combination of the following in a jurisdiction where the language of instruction or practice, as the case may be, was English:

(i) completed postgraduate education consisting of a minimum term of study specified by the council,

(ii) practised the regulated health profession, unsupervised and in good standing, for a minimum period of time specified by the council;

(e) held, immediately preceding the application and continuously for a minimum period of time specified by the council, a senior teaching appointment at an educational institution approved by the council, in which the language of instruction, including the language used in any patient care, was English; or

(f) otherwise satisfies the council that the applicant is reasonably proficient in English.

2. These regulations come into force on April 1, 2018.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds section 1.1 to the regulations setting out circumstances in which an applicant is considered to be reasonably proficient in English for the purpose of registration in the register of a regulated health profession.

SECTION 2 provides for the commencement of these regulations.

SECTION 2 designates dietetics as a regulated health profession and prescribes it as a regulated health profession that does not have a distinct and identifiable scope of practice so that the prohibition in subsection 2(3) of the Act does not apply to the practice of dietetics. It also divides the register for dietetics into sub-registers and parts.

SECTION 3 continues the Prince Edward Island Dietitians Registration Board as the College of Dietitians of Prince Edward Island.

SECTION 4 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for general registration in the register of dietitians.

SECTION 5 provides for the special registration of an applicant in the register of dietitians. It states that registration in the special registration part is not subject to renewal or reinstatement.

SECTION 6 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for renewal of general registration in the register of dietitians. It empowers the Council to require an applicant who does meet the continuing education and competency requirements or the currency requirements to fulfil other requirements.

SECTION 7 provides that a former dietitian may apply for reinstatement of registration in the general registration part of the register of dietitians if his or her registration has lapsed for less than three years.

SECTION 8 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for reinstatement of general registration in the register of dietitians. It empowers the Council to require an applicant who does meet the currency requirements to fulfil other requirements.

SECTION 9 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for registration in the register of dietitian candidates. It empowers the Council to require an applicant who does meet the currency requirements to fulfil other requirements. It requires that a dietitian candidate be supervised in practising dietetics by a dietitian registered in the general part. It provides that registration in the register of dietitian candidates is not subject to renewal or reinstatement.

SECTION 10 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for renewal of registration in the register of dietitian candidates. It empowers the Council to require an applicant who does meet the currency requirements to fulfil other requirements.

SECTION 11 sets out the required education qualification under Part 3.

SECTION 12 sets out the required examinations.

SECTION 13 sets out the required internship training.

SECTION 14 sets out options for demonstrating currency of professional knowledge and skills.

SECTION 15 sets out requirements with respect to professional liability insurance.

SECTION 16 sets out the requirements for continuing education and competency. It also requires dietitians to keep a record of their continuing education and competency activities and provide a copy to the registrar on request.

SECTION 17 sets out titles, abbreviations and initials that are included in designations of a dietitian and a dietitian candidate.

SECTION 18 authorizes dietitians and dietitian candidates to perform a reserved activity, subject to any terms or conditions on their registration.

SECTION 19 prescribes requirements for registration in the register of dietetic interns. It clarifies that there are no prescribed requirements for registration in this register pursuant to certain clauses in subsection 12(2) of the Act. It requires that a dietetic intern be supervised in the practice of dietetics by a dietitian registered in the general registration part of the register of dietitians, approved by the Council.

SECTION 20 prescribes requirements for the renewal of registration in the register of dietetic interns. It clarifies that there are no prescribed requirements for registration in this register pursuant to certain subclauses in clause 22(4)(a) of the Act.

SECTION 21 sets out titles, abbreviations and initials that are included in designations of a dietetic intern.

SECTION 22 authorizes dietetic interns to perform a reserved activity, subject to any terms or conditions on their registration.

SECTION 23 requires that the name of a corporation applying for a permit to carry on the business of providing the services of a dietitian, dietitian candidate or dietetic intern shall be, in the opinion of the registrar, in good taste, dignified and professional. It requires a health profession corporation to obtain written confirmation from the registrar that any proposed name change meets those requirements.

SECTION 24 revokes regulations made under the former Act governing dietitians.

SECTION 25 provides for the commencement of these regulations.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 defines terms used in these regulations.

SECTION 2 designates practical nursing as a regulated health profession.

SECTION 3 continues the Prince Edward Island Licensed Practical Nursing Registration Board as the College of Licensed Practical Nurses of Prince Edward Island.

SECTION 4 divides the register for practical nursing into sub-registers and parts.

SECTION 5 sets out applicable prescribed requirements for registration in the general part of the register of licensed practical nurses.

SECTION 6 provides for provisional registration in the register of licensed practical nurses where an applicant does not meet the currency of professional knowledge and skills requirement. It makes the registration subject to the term or condition that the applicant successfully completes a refresher program approved by the Council within a specified time period. On satisfying the term or condition, the member will be registered in the general registration part. The section provides that a licensed practical nurse registered in the provisional registration part shall be supervised by a licensed practical nurse registered in the general registration part. Finally, it states that provisional registration is not subject to renewal or reinstatement.

SECTION 7 provides for registration in the special registration part of the register of licensed practical nurses. It states that registration in this part is not subject to renewal or reinstatement.

SECTION 8 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for renewal of registration in the general registration part of the register of licensed practical nurses. It provides for provisional registration where the applicant does not meet the requirements for continuing education and competency or currency of professional knowledge and skills, subject to specified terms or conditions. It provides that subsections 6(2) to (4) apply so that on satisfying the term or condition the member will be registered in the general registration part, the member is subject to supervision while registered in the provisional registration part and the provisional registration is not subject to renewal or reinstatement.

SECTION 9 provides that the maximum prescribed period of time a former member's registration may lapse before applying for reinstatement of registration is three years.

SECTION 10 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for reinstatement of registration in the general registration part of the register of licensed practical nurses. It provides for provisional registration where the applicant does not meet the requirements for currency of professional knowledge and skills, subject to specified terms or conditions. It provides that subsections 6(2) to (4) apply so that on satisfying the term or condition the member will be registered in the general registration part, the member is subject to supervision while registered in the provisional registration part and the provisional registration is not subject to renewal or reinstatement.

SECTION 11 sets out the applicable prescribed requirements for registration in the register of graduate practical nurses. It provides that a graduate practical nurse is to be supervised by a licensed practical nurse registered in the general registration part and that registration in the register of graduate practical nurses is not subject to renewal or reinstatement. Finally, it states that an applicant who has already attempted but failed to pass the required competency examination three or more times is not eligible for registration under this section unless the applicant has repeated and successfully completed a required education program.

SECTION 12 prescribes the education requirement for registration.

SECTION 13 sets out the required examinations and defines what constitutes successful completion of the respective examinations.

SECTION 14 sets out three options to demonstrate currency of professional knowledge and skills.

SECTION 15 prescribes insurance requirements for applicants and members registered under these regulations.

SECTION 16 prescribes continuing education requirements.

SECTION 17 sets out some protected designations of members registered under these regulations.

SECTION 18 sets out the reserved activities a licensed practical nurse is authorized to perform, subject to certain conditions.

SECTION 19 provides for a licensed practical nurse to apply for and be granted special authorization to perform advanced foot care. It requires notice of refusal to grant the special authorization and provides for the appeal of a refusal.

SECTION 20 sets out conditions on a special authorization to perform advanced foot care and requirements for notice to the person's primary health care provider and record-keeping.

SECTION 21 requires the name of a health profession corporation to be in good taste, dignified and professional.

SECTION 22 revokes regulations made under the former Act.

SECTION 23 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
