P5 1(c)/4(c)
Program

4. Class 1(c) is established to provide price discounts for milk components used in new fluid milk products. Class 4(c) is established to provide price discounts for components used in new industrial milk products.

Any new products introduced to the market shall be designated to a regular milk class and, if approved, shall be eligible for class 1(c) or 4(c) pricing for a maximum of three years. The discounts granted for approved products shall be based on the P5 target prices for the regular dairy product class to which the product has been designated, and shall be applied to the volume of components utilized in manufacturing the approved product.

Discounts to be applied to the butterfat, protein and other solids utilized in products approved for class 1(c) and 4(c) pricing are as follows:

- (a) 25% for the first year following the product's introduction;
- (b) 15% for the second year following the product's introduction; and
- (c) 10% for the third year following the product's introduction.

Revocation 5. DFPEI Order 2018-01 effective the 1st day of February 2018 is hereby revoked.

Commencement 6. This Order comes into force on the 1st day of September 2018.

DATED at Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, this 31th day of July 2018.

| Sign at cash register | (2) The Corporation shall ensure that a sign is displayed on or near every cash register in the store, within clear view of the cashier, that <ul style="list-style-type: none">(a) states that it is against the law to sell or provide cannabis to persons under the age of 19 years; and(b) directs the cashier to refuse to sell cannabis to a purchaser who does not produce on request identification that meets the requirements of clause (1)(b). |
| Permitted sign | (3) The Corporation may install in its stores signs that list the varieties, forms and types of cannabis offered for sale and the prices of each of them. |
| Commencement | 15. These regulations come into force on August 11, 2018. |

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 establishes definitions for the purposes of the regulations.

SECTION 2 establishes basic rules as to when the Corporation's stores may be open for the sale of cannabis. Within those rules, the Board of the Corporation may specify opening and closing times.

SECTION 3 requires the Board to ensure that prices for each variety, form or type of cannabis are uniform in all of the Corporation's stores. The uniform prices do not include shipping and handling charges on online orders.

SECTION 4 sets out specific duties for employees of the Corporation relating to the sale of cannabis. Only an employee is permitted to sell cannabis at each store. An employee is prohibited from selling cannabis to a person under the age of 19 years. An employee may request a person who is attempting to purchase cannabis to produce proof of age in accordance with section 13. An employee shall not sell or otherwise provide cannabis to a person who appears to be intoxicated or impaired by alcohol or a drug, and an employee shall not sell or otherwise provide more than 30 grams of cannabis to a purchaser in a single transaction.

SECTION 5 prohibits the sale of cannabis except in a sealed package, and also prohibits any person other than an employee from opening a package of cannabis on the premises of a Corporation store.

SECTION 6 prohibits an employee from allowing a person to consume cannabis on the premises of the store where the employee is employed. The section also prohibits any person from consuming cannabis on the premises of a store.

SECTION 7 prohibits a person under the age of 19 years from entering or being in a store, and requires a person entering or present in a store to produce proof of age on request.

SECTION 8 requires the Corporation to ensure that adequate security measures are in place to prevent cannabis in its control from being diverted to an illicit market or activity. The section requires cannabis on the premises of a store to be displayed in a lockable storage container. The Corporation is required to implement and periodically review written operational procedures respecting access to cannabis in its control. The Corporation is required to ensure that directors, officer and employees receive training in operational procedures relevant to the person's role in the Corporation. Where the Corporation contracts with persons or entities as service providers the Corporation must ensure that the service provider implements security measures that the Corporation considers adequate, and the Corporation must monitor the service provider's compliance with those measures.

SECTION 9 requires the Corporation to conduct background screening measures before hiring officers and employees, and to ensure that all of its employees who sell cannabis receive training under applicable provincial and federal legislation.

SECTION 10 specifies the records the Corporation is required to create.

SECTION 11 requires the Corporation to ensure that the online retail system has minimum safeguards related to product delivery. The section also prohibits a delivery person from leaving a package containing cannabis unattended at a door.

SECTION 12 requires the Corporation to provide authorization as specified to a service provider or an employee who is transporting cannabis on behalf of the Corporation.

SECTION 13 specifies types of acceptable identification for the purposes of the Act and the regulations.

SECTION 14 specifies the signage the Corporation is required to and may post.

SECTION 15 provides for the commencement of the regulations.
